Honorable President and Members
Allegheny County Council
119 Courthouse
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Council Members:

Please find the attached resume of Rev. Glenn Grayson, whom I am recommending for appointment to the Juvenile Detention Board of Advisors.

The purpose of the board is to review policies and procedures submitted by the Shuman Center Director and to advise the Director with respect to improvements that may increase efficiency and effectiveness of the general operation of the facility. Rev. Grayson will fill a vacancy on the board and his term will expire on December 31, 2009.

Rev. Grayson currently serves as Pastor of Wesley Center AME Zion Church. In this capacity, Rev. Grayson help to establish the Center that C.A.R.E.S., a non-profit organization that works with children from kindergarten through college. Rev. Grayson also oversees a Violence Prevention Component with One Vision, One Life.

I appreciate your consideration, and ask you to act on this appointment as quickly as possible. Rev. Grayson will make himself available for review before the appropriate committee if members of Council wish to speak with him.

Sincerely,

Rev. Glenn Garrett Grayson

Rev. Glenn Garrett Grayson Sr. is a native of Brooklyn, New York. The fifth of nine children born to the late Lnora and Curtis Grayson.

After completing John Dewey High School in Brooklyn, New York, Rev. Grayson ventured to Salisbury, North Carolina to attend Livingstone College, one of Zion's institutions of Higher Education where he earned a B.S. Degree in Business Administration/Management.

In 1985, he graduated from Hood Theological Seminary, Salisbury, North Carolina, with a Master of Divinity degree. Rev. Grayson continued his educational pursuit; in 1987, completed a year residency program in Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE), from Carolina Medical Center, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Rev. Grayson has held a number of counseling positions; he was also a Social Worker with the Department of Social Services in Rowan County, and worked part-time for nine years as a Domestic Violence Therapist.

Rev. Grayson has successfully pastured two other Churches in North Carolina: Third Creek A.M.E. Zion, and Shiloh A.M.E. Zion.

In November of 1996, Rev. Grayson (like Abraham) heard and answered a call from God to go by faith to a new land, here given rise to his call to pastor Wesley Center A.M.E. Zion Church and to serve as Presiding Elder of the Pittsburgh District. Under his leadership the church has grown physically, financially, and most of all spiritually. In 2000, Rev. Grayson founded a 501c3 non-profit corporation, The Center That C.A.R.E.S. (Children/Adult Recreational & Educational Services) Presently The Center That C.A.R.E.S. is highly noted for it's after school and tutorial program, serving over one hundred families throughout the Hill District Community.

Rev. Grayson is known for his hands on approach of working with children, youth, and adults. He is always present, reachable and available. He serves on the Board of The Hill Community Development Corporation, PIIN (Pittsburgh Interfaith Impact Network), Churches and Clergy United, and The NAACP Executive Board. He is the recipient of The Community Jefferson Award, NAACP Pastor of the Year, and The Henry Highland Garnet Society Award.

Rev. Grayson is married to Attorney Marsha C. Hughes Grayson; and the proud father of three children: Garrett, Shinora, and Jeron, and one granddaughter, Anaiyah; not to mention the number of other children who see him as a father figure.

He lives by the Wesley Center Church Mission "Winning Souls By Example".
