RICH FITZGERALD
COUNTY EXECUTIVE

January 15, 2015

Honorable President and Members of Council
Allegheny County Council
119 Courthouse
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Members of Council:

Please find the attached biography of Stephan Broadus, whom I am recommending for reappointment to the Allegheny County Human Relations Commission.

The purpose of this commission is to initiate, receive, investigate, refer for investigation and pass upon complaints charging unlawful discriminatory practices in violation of the Allegheny County Human Relations Commission as outlined under chapter 215 of the Allegheny County Code of Ordinances. I am recommending Mr. Broadus serve another four year term expiring on December 31, 2018.

Mr. Broadus is currently the Assistant to the Publisher at the New Pittsburgh Courier. Previously to his service on the Allegheny County Human Relations Commission, he served for eight years on the City of Pittsburgh's Commission on Human Relations.

I appreciate your consideration, and ask you to act on this appointment as quickly as possible. Mr. Broadus will make himself available for review before the appropriate committee, if members of Council wish to speak with him.

Stephan A. Broadus
Assistant to the Publisher
New Pittsburgh Courier

Stephan Broadus is assistant to the publisher at the New Pittsburgh Courier, one of the oldest and most historic Black newspapers in the United States.

He has over thirty-five years of progressively responsible leadership and management experience acquired in the media, private entrepreneurship, higher education administration and community service.

Committed to the community, Stephan currently serves as Chairman of the Allegheny County Human Relations Commission. He also completed an eight year term on the City of Pittsburgh Commission on Human Relations as 1st Vice President and Chair of the Compliance Review Section and an eight year term as a member of the Kingsley Association Board of Managers. He is a graduate of Leadership Pittsburgh Year VIII.

Stephan was an original co-coordinator of B-PEP (The Black Political Empowerment Project), and founder & chair of the Pittsburgh Branch NAACP Economic Development Committee where he published the quarterly Sojournal Truth newsletter for the Branch.

Prior to rejoining the Courier in 2002, Stephan was senior vice president and co-founder of North America Telecommunications Corporation, a minority-owned and operated company with offices in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. He helped grow the business from four employees and $150,000 in sales in 1995 to over 200 employees and 14.5 million in sales in 2001.

Stephan started his print media career in 1983 as advertising manager at the Courier for 11 years.

Previously he worked at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Missouri-St. Louis and Lindenwood University in Higher Education Administration and Student Affairs. A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Stephan has a Bachelor's degree in Administration of Justice from the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

In his spare time Stephan is on the "wheels of steel" at various venues around the city spinning rare funk, soul and jazz grooves with a little bit of blues and rock sprinkled in for seasoning. Known as the "Artisan of Wax," DJ Stephan has gained an enthusiastic, diverse audience of young music lovers who enjoy classic sounds on vinyl.
