January 14, 2016

Honorable President and Members
Allegheny County Council
119 Courthouse
Pittsburgh, PA 15219

Dear Members of Council:

Please find the attached resume of Mary Ann Eisenreich, whom I am recommending for reappointment to the Community College of Allegheny County Board ("CCAC Board").

The mission of CCAC is to make quality education affordable and accessible to the community, to provide leadership in workforce training, and support economic development of the region. I am recommending Ms. Eisenreich serve a term to expire on December 31, 2021.

Ms. Eisenreich is currently a Non-profit Consultant. She previously served as the Southwestern Pennsylvania Director for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. She represented the administration of Governor Tom Corbett in sixteen counties in Southwestern Pennsylvania. Prior to this, Ms. Eisenreich served as the Executive Director of Pennsylvania Women Work!

I appreciate your consideration, and ask you to act on this appointment as quickly as possible. Ms. Eisenreich will make herself available for review before the full Council or the appropriate committee, if members of Council wish to speak with her.

Sincerely,

Rich Fitzgerald
Allegheny County Executive

Experience

2015 – present Non-profit consultant

Ms. Eisenreich works on special projects, does strategic planning and development as well as developing networks for clients. Current clients include Manchester Bidwell Corporation, Forbes Fund, and the United Way.

2011 - 2015 Director – Southwest Office of Governor Tom Corbett

Ms. Eisenreich was appointed to this position by Governor Tom Corbett in February, 2011. Responsibilities of the position included representing the Governor in the sixteen counties of Southwest PA, facilitating meetings, interfacing with all state agencies, handling constituent concerns and following the directives of the Governor. During her tenure, Mary Ann initiated quarterly meetings of the directors of regional offices from all agencies, resolved hundred of constituent issues, and participated in panel discussions and speaking engagements to convey the Governor's policies. Ms. Eisenreich used her strong communication and networking skills to build collaborations across business sectors and political divides. This brought the regional office the recognition of being an open venue for problem solving. Ms. Eisenreich set and carried out a policy of ensuring any constituent who phoned or visited the office, received or was directed to the information they need.

2000 -2011 Pennsylvania Women Work Executive Director

As the first executive director of this non-profit, Ms. Eisenreich managed all aspects of a start-up non-profit which included fundraising, hiring staff and developing programs and events. Additional responsibilities included managing a staff of 20, implementing new programs, designing curricula and developing relationships with government officials and community leaders. During her tenure, PAWW experienced significant growth and provided services to tens of thousands of women. These services included personal and career counseling, computer training, communication and networking skill building programs and job placement. Mary Ann also lead the development of significant events such as an annual Career Conference, the Circle of Hope awards event and a statewide Leadership Day held in Harrisburg. These events have been held each year for over a decade. In the position Ms. Eisenreich was able to touch thousands of lives personally.

2001 – 2003 U. S. Department of Labor Consultant Women's Bureau

Ms. Eisenreich coordinated a six state project for GEM-SET (Girls E-Mentoring in Science, Engineering and Technology). This involved email and phone contact with partners, mentors and mentees in a six-state region and reporting to the Women's Bureau. In 2001 coordinated the primary location for a nationwide broadcast connecting mentors, mentees and partners across the nation.

1994 - 1999

Carlow University

Director, Community
Education

Ms. Eisenreich was the first Director of Community Education at Carlow University. In this position she designed the department and its programs, grew the department budget and services areas and managed a staff of 22. The programs of Community Education included adult and basic literacy education, New Choices for single parents and displaced homemakers, New Options for career development and STEM education. Collaborations with other University departments, government officials and community leaders were the building blocks for the department of Community Education.
