WHEREAS, after his retirement from the bench, Judge Gallo plans to return to private practice with one of his two sons, both of whom are attorneys ; and

WHEREAS, on February 9, 2016, President Judge Jeffrey Manning tendered a request, on behalf of all of the judges of the Fifth Judicial District, that Courtroom 21 be named in honor of Judge Gallo's 26 years of dedicated service to the bar and the residents of Allegheny County, and in recognition of his evenhanded administration of justice in the matters over which he presided; and

WHEREAS, it is the judgment of Council that this request is entirely in keeping with the distinguished judicial career of Judge Robert C. Gallo and is an appropriate recognition of his contributions to the Fifth Judicial District and the County;
