Certificate of Recognition awarded to Benjamin Benson, Carmen Carulli, Wayne Harper, Darryl Roher, and Walter Zamosky recognizing their 50 plus years of dedicated service to the Fire Department of North Versailles.

Body...

This Certificate of Recognition is awarded to Benjamin Benson, Carmen Carulli, Wayne Harper, Darryl Roher, and Walter Zamosky in recognition of their 50 plus years of dedicated service to the Fire Department of North Versailles (F.D.N.V.). The mission of the F.D.N.V., Station 213, E.M.S. Station 390, is to preserve life, protect property and the environment, and promote public safety by providing quality fire, rescue, emergency medical services, and prevention and education services throughout the North Versailles Township area; primarily in the districts previously designated for Dixon Hollow, Green Valley, and Sunset-Central Fire Departments, and any other mutual aid areas when called upon. These individuals have continually answered the challenging call of duty by providing 24-hour protection to the North Versailles Township area. We recognize and commend Benjamin Benson, Carmen Carulli, Wayne Harper, Darryl Roher, and Walter Zamosky for their unwavering dedication to safety and rescue, and we thank each of them for their 50 plus years of watchful protection and service provided to the residents of North Versailles Township.
