An Ordinance amending the Allegheny County Code of Ordinances, Division 2, entitled "County Government Operations," Chapter 215, entitled "Boards, Commissions and Committees," Article V, entitled "Human Relations Commission," in order to clarify the applicability of existing Countywide nondiscrimination requirements in the context of discrimination based upon hairstyles.

WHEREAS, Allegheny County has had a longstanding policy against discrimination, and this policy is incorporated into the Administrative Code of Allegheny County insofar as it relates to County employment, contract, and other activities;

WHEREAS, in 2009, Allegheny County strengthened its commitment to opposing discrimination through the enactment of a human rights ordinance in order to govern discriminatory practices outside the structure of the County government; and

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court and Supreme Court have both explicitly found that local antidiscrimination ordinances are not preempted by the terms of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, 43 P.S. §§951-953; and

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court has explicitly found that local antidiscrimination ordinances are permissible exercises of local authority, and are not prohibited under the terms of the Home Rule

Charter and Optional Plans Law, 53 P.S. §§2901-3171; and

WHEREAS, while the County's human relations ordinance, codified in Article V of Chapter 215 of the Allegheny County Code of Ordinances, was drafted to contain expansive definitions of discriminatory practices, certain practices involving the regulation of hairstyles have become more prevalent since the enactment of the ordinance which often function as de facto discrimination based on race, gender identity, national origin, or religion; and

WHEREAS, racial and national origin discrimination, for example, is often reflected in public education, housing, public accommodation, and/or workplace policies and practices that bar natural or protective hairstyles commonly worn by individuals of African descent; and

WHEREAS, this effect has been recognized, for example, by the United States Armed Forces' 2018 repeal of grooming policies that previously barred natural or protective hairstyles commonly worn by people of African descent, and express recognition that the prohibitions were racially discriminatory and bore no relationship to individuals' occupational qualifications; and

WHEREAS, similar discriminatory effects can result in instances in which public education, housing, public accommodation, and/or workplace policies or practices bar hairstyles commonly worn by individuals with certain religious beliefs or which require hairstyles in any fashion that adversely impacts certain gender identities or expressions; and

WHEREAS, in 2017 and 2019, for example, the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) has argued that employers' attempts to mandate that employees alter hairstyles that are related to their religious practices violate Federal law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, which prohibits religion-based discrimination; and

WHEREAS, according to the National Council of State Legislatures, numerous states prohibit discrimination based upon gender identity or expression and note that gender expression incorporates an individual's appearance, with at least one state (Oregon) expressly noting that gender expression includes the hairstyle(s) selected by an individual; and

WHEREAS, it is the judgment of Council that prohibiting discriminatory impacts in housing, employment, public education, and public accommodation settings is appropriate and inures to the benefit of the residents of Allegheny County; and

WHEREAS, it is further the judgment of Council that a clear and comprehensive ordinance should address any systematic deprivation of educational, employment, housing, or public accommodation opportunities on the basis of hair textures or styles that are commonly associated with race, national origin, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, or religion.

The Council of the County of Allegheny hereby enacts as follows:

SECTION 1.

7. To rely upon staff employed by the Allegheny County Law Department and Human Resources Department, to the extent necessary for the accomplishment of its powers and duties as delineated in this Section, provided that such reliance does not otherwise harm the ability of §215-3839. Procedure.

- A. Filing a Complaint. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful discriminatory practice, may make, sign and file with the Commission a verified complaint in writing which shall state the name and address of the person or persons alleged to have committed the unlawful practice and the particulars thereof. The complaint shall also contain such other information as may be required by the Commission. The Commission, upon its own initiative, may in like manner sign and file a complaint. The Commission or the complainant shall have the power reasonably and fairly to amend any complaint, and the respondent shall have like power to amend his/her answer.
- B. Timeliness. Any complaint filed pursuant to this section must be so filed within one hundred eighty days after the alleged act of discrimination, unless otherwise required by the Fair Housing Act.
- C. Withdrawal. Any complaint may be withdrawn at any time by the party filing the complaint.
- D. Preliminary Investigation. After the filing of any complaint, if the Commission determines that an investigation is warranted, the Commission shall refer the complaint to the Allegheny County Department of Human Resources, which shall conduct an investigation in order to determine whether a factual basis for the complaint exists. The procedure governing such investigation shall be modeled after the procedure described in §5-1013.24 of the Administrative Code of Allegheny County, governing investigation of ethics complaints. The Department of Human Resources shall not hold hearings, issue findings to parties, or be empowered to undertake any final action on any complaint forwarded to it for investigation by the Human Relations Commission. At the conclusion of the preliminary investigation, the Department of Human Resources shall forward a summary report to the Human Relations Commission. The Human Relations Commission may request that the Council initiate an investigation and/or issue subpoenas to any person charged with an unlawful practice to furnish information, records or other documents, and may seek enforcement of any subpoena issued under the terms of this Section by petition to the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County.
- E. Allegation and Notice. If it shall be determined after such investigation that there is no basis for the allegations of the complaint, the Human Relations Commission shall, within ten (10) days from such determination, cause to be issued and served upon the complainant written notice of such determination and dismissal of the complaint. The complainant may, within ten (10) days after such service, file with the Commission, a request for a review. The Commission shall, upon request for such a review, provide the complainant an opportunity to appear before the Commission to present such additional information as may be available to support the allegations of the complaint. The Commission may reinstate the complaint within ten (10) days of the review upon a determination that the additional information presented warrants such reinstatement.
- F. Conciliation. If the Human Relations Commission, after investigation, determines that probable cause exists for the allegations of the complaint, the Commission shall immediately endeavor to eliminate the unlawful practice complained of by persuasion, conference and conciliation. The Commission and staff shall not disclose identities of the parties except as required by the Fair Housing Act.

G. Hearing.

1. If the Human Relations Commission, in its discretion, finds it is not possible to eliminate such unlawful practices by persuasion, the Commission shall cause to be issued and served a written notice, together with a copy of such complaint as the same may have been amended requiring the party named in such complaint, hereinafter referred to as respondent, to answer the charges of such complaint at a hearing before the Commission at a time and place to be specified in such notice. The Commission may appoint a hearing examiner or designate no fewer than three of its members to preside at such a meeting, or it may at its election conduct such hearing en banc.
2. When notice of hearing is given as set forth in subsection (e) and an election procedure is required by the Fair Housing Act, either party may elect, as an alternative to Public Hearing before the Commission, to have the claims asserted in the complaint decided in a civil action brought under the original jurisdiction of Allegheny County Court of Common Pleas. The written notice of the Commission shall be sent to all parties and will inform them of their right to take civil action. An election must be made within twenty (20) days after receipt of the notice of hearing. A party making this election shall notify the Commission and all other parties. If an election for civil action is made by either party, the Commission shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of election, commence and maintain a civil action on behalf of the Complainant. In any action brought under this subsection:
 - a. If, after a trial, the Court of Common Pleas finds that a respondent engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory practice as defined in this Article, the Court may award attorney's fees and costs to the complainant on whose behalf the Commission commenced the action in addition to attorney's fees and costs incurred by the Commission.

H. Conduct of Hearing. The case in support of the complaint shall be presented to the Commission or before a hearing examiner designated by the Commission for the purpose of hearing said complaint by its attorney or agents, by the complainant, or by an agent or representative of the complainant. The respondent may appear at such hearing in person or otherwise, with or without counsel, and submit testimony. The complainant may likewise appear at such hearing in person or otherwise, with or without counsel, and submit testimony. The Commission or the complainant shall have the power reasonably and fairly to amend any complaint, and the respondent shall have like power to amend his answer. The Commission shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity. The testimony taken at the hearing shall be under oath and be transcribed.

I. Findings.

1. If upon all the evidence at the hearing, the Commission shall find that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory practice as defined in this Article, the Commission shall state its findings of fact, and shall issue and cause to be served on such respondent an order requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful discriminatory practice and to take such affirmative action, including, but not limited to, reimbursement of certifiable travel expenses in matters involving the complaint, compensation for loss of work in matters involving the complaint, hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization, the making of reasonable accommodations, or selling or leasing specified housing accommodations or commercial property upon such equal terms and conditions and with such equal facilities, services and privileges or lending money, whether or not secured by mortgage or otherwise for the acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair or maintenance of housing accommodations or commercial property, upon such equal terms and conditions to any person discriminated against or all persons, any other verifiable, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses caused by unlawful discriminatory practice, or other compensation as provided under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act.

2. In those cases alleging a violation of Sections 215-33 or 215-34 and violations of the Fair Housing Act, the Commission may award actual damages including damages caused by humiliation and embarrassment as, in the judgment of the Commission, will effectuate the purposes of this Article, and including a requirement for report of the manner of compliance.
 - a. Such order may also assess a civil penalty against the respondent in a complaint of discrimination filed under Section 215-33 or 215-34 and violations of the Fair Housing Act:
 - i. In an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000) if the respondent has not been adjudged to have committed any prior discriminatory practice;
 - ii. In an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed one other discriminatory practice during the five-year period ending on the date of this order; or
 - iii. In an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) if the respondent has been adjudged to have committed more than one other discriminatory practice during the seven-year period ending on the date of this order.
 - b. If however the acts constituting the discriminatory practice that is the object of the charge are committed by the same natural person who has been previously adjudged to have committed acts constituting a discriminatory practice, then the civil penalties set forth in subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) may be imposed without regard to the period of time within which any subsequent discriminatory practice occurred.
 - c. If upon all the evidence at the hearing, in those cases alleging a violation of Section 215-33 or 215-34, the Commission finds that a respondent has engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory practice as defined in this Article, the Commission may award attorney's fees and costs to prevailing complainants.
- J. Commonwealth License. When the respondent is a licensee of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Commission shall inform the appropriate State licensing authority of the order with the request that the licensing-authority take such action as it deems appropriate against such licensee.
- K. Dismissal. If, upon all the evidence, the Commission shall find that a respondent has not engaged in any such unlawful discriminatory practice, the Commission shall state its findings of fact, and shall issue and cause to be served on the complainant an order dismissing the said complaint as to such respondent.

- L. Hearing Rules and Records. The Commission shall establish rules of practice to govern, expedite and effectuate the foregoing procedure and its own actions thereunder. Three or more members of the Commission or a hearing examiner designated by the Commission shall constitute the Commission for any hearing required to be held by the Commission under this Article. The recommended findings, conclusions and order made by said members or hearing examiner shall be reviewed and approved or reversed by the Commission before such order may be served upon the parties to the complaint. The recommended findings, conclusions and order made by said members or hearing examiner shall become a part of the permanent record of the proceeding and shall accompany any order served upon the parties to the complaint.

§215-3940. Enforcement, Judicial Review and Penalty.

- A. Injunction. If the Commission concludes, at any time following the filing of a complaint under this Article, that prompt judicial action is necessary to prevent immediate and irreparable harm, the Commission may commence an action in Court of Common Pleas, and that Court may grant an appropriate preliminary or special injunction pending final disposition of the complaint. Any such order or relief shall be granted in accordance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure Section 1531.
- B. Enforcement. The complainant, or the Commission may secure enforcement of the order of the Commission or other appropriate relief. When the Commission has heard and decided any complaint brought before it, enforcement of its order shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in the Court of Common Pleas, together with a transcript of the record of the hearing before the Commission, and issuance and service of a copy of said petition as in proceedings in equity. The Commission's copy of the testimony shall be available at all reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost, and for the purpose of enforcement or judicial review of the order. Any failure to obey an order of the Court may be punishable by such Court as contempt thereof.
- C. Enforcement by Private Person.
1. In cases involving a claim of discrimination, if a complainant invokes the procedures set forth in this Article, that individual's right of action in the courts of the Commonwealth shall not be foreclosed. If within one (1) year after the filing of a complaint with the Commission, the Commission dismisses the complaint or for whatever reason, closes the complainant's case, or has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the complainant is a party, the Commission must so notify the complainant. On receipt of such a notice the complainant shall be able to bring an action in the courts of common pleas of the Commonwealth based on the right to freedom from discrimination granted by this Article.
 2. An action under this subsection shall be filed within one hundred (100) consecutive calendar days after the date of notice from the Commission closing the complaint. Any complaint so filed shall be served on the Commission at the time the complaint is filed in court. The Commission shall notify the complainant of this requirement.
 3. If the court finds that the respondent has engaged in or is engaging in an unlawful discriminatory practice charged in the complaint, the court shall enjoin the respondent from engaging in such unlawful discriminatory practice and order affirmative action which may include, but is not limited to, reinstatement or hiring of employees, granting of back pay, or any other legal or equitable relief as the court deems appropriate. Back pay liability shall not accrue from a date more than three years prior to the filing of a complaint charging violations of this Article.

4. The court shall serve upon the Commission any final order issued in any action brought under this subsection.
5. If, after a trial held pursuant to subsection (c), the court of common pleas finds:
 - a. That a defendant engaged in or is engaging in any unlawful discriminatory practice as defined in this Article, the court may award attorney's fees and costs as provided under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, to the prevailing plaintiff.
- D. Penalties. Any person who shall willfully resist, prevent, impede or interfere with the Commission, its members, agents or agencies in the performance of duties pursuant to this Article, or shall willfully violate an order of the Commission, shall be guilty of a summary criminal offense and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or both, in the discretion of the Court, but procedure for the review of an order shall not be deemed to be such willful conduct.
- E. Construction. The provisions of this Article shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof.
- F. Timeliness. The time limits for filing under any complaint or other pleading under this Article shall be subject to waiver, estoppel and equitable tolling.
- G. Except as otherwise provided, any order of the Commission may be reviewed under the provisions of the Act of December 2, 1968, P.L. 1133 (53 P.S. §11300) known as the "Local Agency Law", as amended.
- H. Where a provision of this Article is found to be in conflict with a provision of any other Ordinance of the County, or any regulation issued under the authority of such Ordinance, the provisions which establish the higher standard for the protection of health, safety and welfare shall prevail.

SECTION 2. Severability. If any provision of this Ordinance shall be determined to be unlawful, invalid, void or unenforceable, then that provision shall be considered severable from the remaining provisions of this Ordinance which shall be in full force and effect.

SECTION 3. Repealer. Any Resolution or Ordinance or part thereof conflicting with the provisions of this Ordinance is hereby repealed so far as the same affects this Ordinance.
