Proclamation honoring Mr. Peter "Pete" Seddon Edwards, Jr. upon his 100th birthday.

WHEREAS, on January 2, 1921, Peter "Pete" Seddon Edwards, Jr. was born to Helen Pinkham Edwards and Peter Seddon Edwards, Sr.; and

WHEREAS, Pete attended a one-room schoolhouse on Irishtown Road in Bethel Park, PA; and

WHEREAS, Pete graduated from Bethel Park High School at the age of 17 and while attending high school worked at his family's lumberyard unloading lumber and doing other odd jobs; and

WHEREAS, in order to prepare for college, Pete attended Mercersburg Academy where he played football, basketball and baseball; and

WHEREAS, Pete attended Colgate University in Hamilton, New York where he majored in Economics; and

WHEREAS, after hearing about Pearl Harbor, Pete enlisted in the in the US Army Air Corp on August 12, 1942; and

WHEREAS, Pete graduated a semester early in December of 1942, and in April of 1943 entered active duty as an Aviation Cadet, receiving his wings and Second Lieutenant's bars in March of 1944; and

WHEREAS, in order to fly as a pilot, Pete had surgery to correct a deviated septum at Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh; there he met Ruth Hay, a nurse from Somerset, PA. They dated for six weeks before Pete had to leave for training. Ruth visited him at training camp in Moultrie, Georgia where they were married on March 17, 1944 in the chapel at Spence Field; and

WHEREAS, in August of 1944, Pete traveled by troop ship to Italy where he was stationed in San Sevaro and Mondolfo from September 1944 to May of 1945, he flew 49 missions as a bomber escort in a P-51 Mustang; and

WHEREAS, because of his construction knowledge in remodeling a building for a mess hall, Pete was chosen to travel to Rome to purchase furniture for the mess hall. There, he was blessed by the Pope and had time to visit famous churches and the Coliseum; and

WHEREAS, in February of 1945, Pete was promoted to 1st Lieutenant; and

WHEREAS, in May of 1945, Pete left the Army Air Corp and returned home to his wife in hopes of raising a family and working at the family business; and

WHEREAS, in the mid-50's, Pete decided he wanted to start his own business, so he bought a Wynn Oil Company distributorship. His territory consisted of Western Pennsylvania. At that time, Pete worked part-time for Brookside Lumber and part-time for Wynn's. In the early 50's, he became President of Brookside Lumber and he has been Chairman of the Board since the 1980's; and

WHEREAS, Pete later became a distributor for BG Products, Inc.; a company which produces products to maintain vehicles through high quality automotive maintenance services for fuel systems, engines, transmissions, brakes, power steering, cooling, battery, drive line and climate control systems. At 95, he sold his BG distributorship, but continued working for the family business, Brookside Lumber Company until he retired in November of 2020 at the age of 99-years; and

WHEREAS, as a young father, Pete had a passion for sports and became involved in the church basketball league, the Bethel Park softball league, and a member of the St. Clair Country Club; and
